

Equipping organizations and empowering individuals to make their first impression their best impression

Professionally Polished – Business Etiquette Essentials for Future Leaders

This topic focuses on the elements of etiquette required for success. Students will have a better understanding of the application of business etiquette as it is applied to personal and professional branding.

Professionally Polished – Etiquette Essentials of Networking

Learn what you can do today to prepare for tomorrow.

Networking is a skill that will last a lifetime. Mastering these skills in college can mean the difference between landing the internship of your dreams or sitting on the sidelines.

You're Hired! – Etiquette Essentials for Interviewing

The perception camera is always rolling! This topic covers the necessary etiquette skills to master the interview process. What will help you outclass your competition?

Dallas Teague Snider The Impression Engineer Author · Speaker · Coach

Our mission is to provide our clients and customers with a personalized approach to professional development. Every person is different; therefore we are dedicated to learning the specific needs of our clients and creating a program that best fits their goals and objectives.

As featured on the cover of Personal Excellence Magazine

Techno-Etiquette: Avoid the pitfalls that can mean career suicide

Learn how to embrace our technology culture. Avoid the faux pas that can have a negative impact on your professional image.

“ Intelligent, high energy, great speaker All of these are great descriptors of Ms. Teague, but none do her enough justice for the value she brings to your business and your business habits. I highly recommend Ms. Teague.”

Zackary Moore
ZM/PR

Professionally Polished – Dining Skills

Understand the proper dining etiquette erases barriers that impede building relationships. Remember the meal is an audition. The potential employer is looking for someone that will have a positive reflection on the company and with their clients.

“Razor Sharp business etiquette training that gave me a feeling of empowerment.”

